BENEFITS

- Borrowers may use the loan proceeds to build and/or renovate and/or repair a house, shop house, commercial building or flat already owned by the borrower.
- Borrowers may repay the loan to the Bank according to their means through monthly installments, the amount of which is determined based on the repayment term and interest rate selected at the outset.

RISKS

- Repayment of the loan before the due date, whether in part or in full, may be subject to an early repayment fee, the amount of which is specified in the Credit Agreement signed by the Borrower.
- An increase in the interest rate during the floating period may result in the monthly installment amount being higher than before.
- Late payment of installments will incur a late payment penalty.
- The Bank will report the Borrower's loan history to the Financial Information Service System (SLIK). The Borrower must repay all facilities held with the Bank in accordance with the specified due dates. Should the Borrower fail to make payment, the Bank shall align the collectibility classification with the lowest collectibility category in accordance with the applicable regulations.
- If the Borrower defaults on the Credit Agreement, the Bank reserves the right to foreclose on the assets serving as collateral for the Borrower's obligations.
